Storm Policy: No classes when schools are closed in Sackville

The Instructor will hold an introductory session on Tue April 20 where he will explain the preparation, tools and materials needed for the chair caning. The actual caning session is to be arranged between instructor and participants.

This course will consist of a one-hour instructional session followed by a one-day work session to complete the project.

Students come with a ready to cane object and receive instruction on what to expect as they cane as well as a booklet detailing how to cane—about 1hr—as well as info about acquiring caning supplies. Students and the Instructor will then meet and spend a day caning until the project is done or at least 6 hours unless students are sharing the work of doing one object.

Student supplies:

About 1 hank of cane per 5 students at about $50/hank plus a small amount of spline (very cheap).

Instructor Bio:

Michael learned to cane from his sister 35 years ago and has caned occasionally since then.

Some people are very sensitive to perfumes and other scents. Please respect a scent free environment by not using scented products. Thank you.

A note to seniors about class attendance and absenteeism....

As you know, our instructors are all volunteers, who work very hard at putting courses together. Your cooperation is appreciated in letting them know if you are unable to attend any of the classes as most instructors plan weekly classes that are appropriate to the number of registered students in the course.

If circumstances change between registration and the first class, or if you decide to withdraw after the first or second class, please email tsccordinator@nbnet.nb.ca or call 364-2780. Many courses have a wait list and this could allow someone else to take your place.

Sometimes, seniors have travel plans or medical appointments made in advance. It would help instructors to know this at registration, if possible, so that class material may be adjusted accordingly. Illness, as well as other unanticipated and unavoidable conflicts can occur. If you are able, please let your instructor know as soon as possible if you will miss a class.

Thank you!
