Maximum - to be determined

Storm Policy: No classes when schools are closed in Sackville

This is a history course following the trails of important events in the Tantramar region. Registration will be held during Spring 2010 registration so that the course can begin before the fall registration, early enough to finish before cold and dark shorten the sessions.

Those who register in the spring will be contacted late in August to remind them about the course and to provide them with specific meeting day/time and locations. Those who register early are expected to pay their 2010-2011 membership dues by the Sackville registration date of Sept 27, 2010.

Some topics to be covered in this course:

- the trail of the Acadian Expulsion
- places important to the Yorkshire settlement
- the route of the Eddy Rebellion
- shipyards of Dorchester and Sackville

More topics and details will be provided before September.

Some people are very sensitive to perfumes and other scents. Please respect a scent free environment by not using scented products. Thank you.

A note to seniors about class attendance and absenteeism....

As you know, our instructors are all volunteers, who work very hard at putting courses together. Your cooperation is appreciated in letting them know if you are unable to attend any of the classes as most instructors plan weekly classes that are appropriate to the number of registered students in the course.

If circumstances change between registration and the first class, or if you decide to withdraw after the first or second class, please email tsccordinator@nbnet.nb.ca or call 364-2780. Many courses have a wait list and this could allow someone else to take your place.

Sometimes, seniors have travel plans or medical appointments made in advance. It would help instructors to know this at registration, if possible, so that class material may be adjusted accordingly. Illness, as well as other unanticipated and unavoidable conflicts can occur. If you are able, please let your instructor know as soon as possible if you will miss a class.

Thank you!
