Storm Policy: No classes when schools are closed in Sackville

A free and open exchange of views on predetermined subjects (TOPICS) decided upon by the participants at the first class. Each participant will be guaranteed to have his or her subject discussed by the class during one hour. At the first encounter, the members will also decide if they prefer to have all the Topics scheduled for the entire course or be drawn at the beginning of each hour. Full respect of each individual and of their thoughts must be "de rigueur". I shall be glad to serve as monitor of this class with the help of the person the subject of which will be discussed. I am confident this course will prove itself to be fun and enriching for everybody.

A note to seniors about class attendance and absenteeism....

As you know, our instructors are all volunteers, who work very hard at putting courses together. Your cooperation is appreciated in letting them know if you are unable to attend any of the classes as most instructors plan weekly classes that are appropriate to the number of registered students in the course.

If circumstances change between registration and the first class, or if you decide to withdraw after the first or second class, please email tsccordinator@nbnet.nb.ca or call 364-2780. Many courses have a wait list and this could allow someone else to take your place.

Sometimes, seniors have travel plans or medical appointments made in advance. It would help instructors to know this at registration, if possible, so that class material may be adjusted accordingly. Illness, as well as other unanticipated and unavoidable conflicts can occur. If you are able, please let your instructor know as soon as possible if you will miss a class.

Thank you!
