

Singing Sensations with Karen Olscamp

kolscamp@live.com

Tuesdays, 6:30-8:30pm in Marshview Middle School Music Room

7 weeks starting on January 18, 2011.

No maximum

Storm Policy: No classes when schools are closed in Sackville

This course will offer an opportunity for those of you with an interest in singing to join with others and make beautiful music together. Have fun as you improve your musical understanding through the performance of great songs. A variety of styles and levels of complexity will be included, with the sheer joy of singing together our main goal. No previous choral experience is necessary, no auditions required. Just come ready to sing and chase the Winter blues away.

Location: Directions to the Music Room at Marshview: Please use entrance at the back of the building, door closest to Quenn's Road. Upon entering the school, turn left down the hall. Music room is first room on left, adjacent to the library. There is plenty of parking along the back driveway.

Students are asked to wear comfortable clothing and bring a bottle of water.

NOTE: There will be a $10.00 student fee to be paid at registration to cover cost of folder and additional music. Participants may keep music purchased with their money. Borrowed music must be returned. It must be paid for if lost.

Instructor Bio:

Karen Olscamp taught Music for thirty-five years in the Public School System, including all grade levels from Kindergarten to Grade Twelve. Her particular passion has been establishing choral programs in schools, making the artistry of music-making available to all children. Her most recent teaching assignment included directing the award-winning Marshview Middle School Choir. Now retired, she looks forward to offering the same "invitation to song" to the senior adults in her community, knowing one never loses passion for good music and fine singing.

Some people are very sensitive to perfumes and other scents. Please respect a scent free environment by not using scented products. Thank you.

A note to seniors about class attendance and absenteeism....

As you know, our instructors are all volunteers, who work very hard at putting courses together. Your cooperation is appreciated in letting them know if you are unable to attend any of the classes as most instructors plan weekly classes that are appropriate to the number of registered students in the course.

If circumstances change between registration and the first class, or if you decide to withdraw after the first or second class, please email tscordinator@nbnet.nb.ca or call 364-2780. Many courses have a wait list and this could allow someone else to take your place. Sometimes, seniors have travel plans or medical appointments made in advance. It would help instructors to know this at registration, if possible, so that class material may be adjusted accordingly. Illness, as well as other unanticipated and unavoidable conflicts can occur. If you are able, please let your instructor know as soon as possible if you will miss a class.

Thank you!
